

Curriculum Vitae

Personal Information

Full Name: Addisu Yirdaw

Email: addisulal@gmail.com

Phone: +251 980354112

Location: Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

Objective

Dedicated business administration student and online educator with a strong foundation in computer science and web development. Seeking to expand expertise in business management, digital literacy, and technical skills to contribute effectively in both education and administrative roles.

Education

Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration

University of Phoenix (UOP)

Expected Graduation Date: 2027

Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science

Debre Berhan University, Ethiopia

Graduation Date: April 2027

Leadership Experience

Student Union Club Representative

- Representing six student clubs, fostering collaboration and student engagement.
- Organizing events, managing communications, and advocating for student interests.
- Coordinating with university administration to enhance club activities.

Teaching Experience

Online Teacher

- Designed and delivered engaging lessons on foundational computer science concepts.
- Taught topics including web development fundamentals (CSS, HTML, and JavaScript).
- Guided students in practical exercises, projects, and assessments to enhance learning outcomes.
- Received positive feedback for clear communication and effective teaching methods.

Skills

- Business administration principles and management strategies
- Leadership and student engagement
- Front-end web development: CSS, HTML, JavaScript
- Strong understanding of computer science principles and problem-solving
- Video editing and multimedia content creation
- Creating tailored learning plans to meet diverse student needs

Certifications

Teaching Certificate

- Awarded by Debre Berhan University
- Date of Issue: 2/2023

Additional Information

- Participated in specialized training programs with Techtonic Tribe, Debre Berhan University, focusing on web development and collaborative projects.
- Engaged in extracurricular activities promoting technology awareness and education.